

Rights Respecting School - February

The government has the responsibility to make sure that your rights are protected. They must help your family to protect your rights and create an environment where you can grow and reach your potential.

Article 4

